NISSAN
MOTOR CORPORATION

Logistics and Packaging Data Sheet (LPDS)

Key Point(s):

- The "Logistics and Packaging Data Sheet" is a document which is used to do the packaging specification.
- The supplier uses that form to make the choice of box and pallet or container, the number of parts in the packaging, the number of boxes on the pallet. It also indicates the logistics costs.
- Nissan has to validate the data sent by the supplier. In case of rejection, Nissan will inform the supplier and negotiates a different solution.

Minimum Content Requirement(s):

- The supplier shall contact to relevant logistics & packaging department for information on their specific requirements.

Copyright © NISSAN